Vietnamese Lower Flags To Mourn Partition Move

SAIGON, Indochina (AP) — The Vietnamese flag drooped at half-staff today on Saigon's government buildings The gesture mourned the northern half of the country—lost to the Communists in eight years of fighting and 2½ months of arguing at the Geneva conference

Viet Nam Premier Ngo Dinh Diem ordered the official flags halfway down backing up his denunciation yesterday of the partition ordered by the Geneva cease fire

Sources close to the militantly Nationalist Premier said he would not resign his post despite his anger at the armistice terms which his representatives at Geneva said were concluded without their consent

Diem these sources said considers it his duty to lead Viet Nam in the difficult days ahead Under the cease fire terms both North and South Viet Nam are slated for internationally supervised elections in two years to reunite them

So far there is little expectation that the forces opposed to Communist leader Ho Chi Minh will win The Viet Nam government's immediate problem was to arrange for evacuation southward of thousands of anti-Reds in the North desirous of escaping from the incoming Vietminh

But Associated Press Correspondent Forrest Edwards reported from Hanoi that various Vietnamese professional men he interviewed there said they intended to remain in the north and that they know of many others who also expect to stay if we are given any kind of assurance we and our families will not be harmed"

MISSING — Dr Otto John (AP Facsimile)

U.S. Says Dr. John Kidnaped

BERLIN (AP)—The U S High Commission said inquiry shows that Dr Otto John chief of West Germany's anti subversive forces has been 'trapped of forced into the East and now is being held in the Soviet sector of Berlin

Many West German newspapers expressed belief however that John—the director of the Federal Office for the Protection of the Constitution—had defected to the Communists One big paper likened his disappearance to the cases of Alger Hiss Harry Dexter White and Klaus Fuchs

The mysterious disappearance of the West German counterpart of America's J Edgar Hoover jeopardized West Germany's entire security system and possibly those of several Allied intelligence agencies Western officials said

Britain rushed two top counter intelligence agents to Berlin to investigate John's disappearance from West Berlin Tuesday night London sources said the British government had cancelled the codes it used to communicate with the West German regime just in case John had the code books with him

But the official American statement backed up the theory of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government at Bonn The Federal Republic called John's disappearance an evident abduction'

John was last seen in the company of Dr Wolfgang Wohlgemuth who has been branded by the interior ministry as a Communist

West Berlin police said John had been suffering from a "severe mental depression' and may have been lured into Communist Berlin by promises of psychiatric treatment

Wohlgemuth practiced on both sides of the Iron Curtain He had an office in the American Sector of Berlin and maintained a clinic in the charity hospital in Communist Berlin

Rain came to parts of thirsty Nebraska late Thursday and early Friday ending a dry period that was causing considerable damage to crops

The cool air mass that overspread Nebraska Friday lowered temperatures 10 to 15 degrees and brought needed moisture to a wide area of the state Saturday temperatures are to be warmer at near 90 with fair skies

MINDEN APPARENTLY benefited most from the weather change receiving 1 60 inches of moisture Holdrege had 1 57 Orleans and Beaver City 1 11 and Cambride 78 Light amounts fell in southeast Nebraska

But dry conditions still prevail in some areas The rain missed parts of the state while in others the amount of moisture received was not enough to make up for the long dry spell

Crops even those which didn't get in on the rain received another kind of assist from the weather man in the form of cool weather Highs Thursday ranged from 66 at Scottsbluff to 85 at Lincoln and Omaha The coolish weather was the second day in a row that temperatures were below the seasonal normals

The five day forecast said temperatures would average near normal through Wednesday The normal high for this time of year is 91 in the west and 92 in the east Scattered thunderstorms will bring about a quarter of an inch of moisture during the five days, the forecast said

ELSEWHERE AGRICULTURAL spokesmen warned that unless more rains fall quickly the Midwest may suffer tremendous crop losses

Appeals for aid were mounting among farmers in central and southern Illinois who said rains came too late or were insufficient to alleviate their distress

Three congressmen appealed to Gov William G Stratton to ask President Eisenhower to proclaim their districts in central southern and western Illinois 'disaster areas

The Indiana Division of Forestry warned that several more inches of rain are needed in the next four or five weeks to prevent the worst fire season in Indiana history'

Farm experts said the cool air which arrived in the northern Midwest had saved thousands of cattle and poultry dying from the intense heat

Debate Limit Fails

Morse Blocks GOP Attempt To Cut Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican leaders issued a general agreement to put a time limit on the Senate's atomic debate but Sen Morse (Ind Ore) blocked them by refusing to agree

Hotley Sen Knowland of California the GOP floor leader, declared that Morse apparently wanted a situation in which the President bows his head' to Morse's wishes and in which the Senate also would bow to Morse

Morse replied that I know the majority leader is tired' or Knowland would no have voiced such a statement Morse stuck to his objection

In an apparent conciliatory gesture to the opposition Sen Hickenlooper (R Ia) withdrew a proposal to bar use of Atomic Energy Commission funds for construction of plants to produce commercial power

'Torpedo Effort'

Sens Anderson (D NM) and Gore (D-Tenn) charged Hickenlooper's move was an effort to torpedo the major victory they and other critics of the original bill won Thursday

If it is pressed they said debate would be prolonged

By a 4a 41 vote Thursday the Senate adopted an amendment which would authorize the federal government to go into the commercial production of atomic power

Critics of the original bill cheered this as a victory in locking the door against the private power monopoly'

House Waits

On the other side of the Capitol House leaders gave up waiting on the Senate and scheduled a session of their own today on the omnibus measure which would revamp the basic 1946 atomic energy law Debate in that body could be as bitter as the Senate's but not as drawn out for House Debate limiting rules are strict

The Senate effort to curb discussion came shortly after midnight when Sen Knowland of California the Republican leader filed a petition to invoke cloture The petition was signed by 38 senators all Republicans

No test can come on it before Sunday morning and Knowland said he didn't expect one before Monday

Political Bombs

Knowland conceded the move was a last resort Sen Humphrey (D Minn) accused the Californian of coming armed with 'atomic political bombs and said he's going to drop one too many Humphrey an opponent of many features of the bill said progress was being made yet now we have the final weapon used against us'

Officials Probe Fire At Consumers Plant

Temporary Power Stoppage Affects Large Area of City

Officers of the Nebraska Public Power System from Columbus were in Lincoln trying to determine the cause of a fire in a circuit breaker at the power plant at 9th and K which resulted in a power stoppage in large areas in Lincoln for more than three hours early Friday

The system's equipment at the plant was the cause of the fire and stoppage it Consumers Dale Renner Lincoln district manager for Consumers explained that a circuit breaker blew up at the plant but a reason for the blowup was not determined He said that although some sections are slightly overloaded at the plant this was not the cause of the fire

THE FIRE, started at 5 12 a m and electrical service had been restored to all areas through emergency operations by about 8 30 a m The damaged unit at the plant was expected to be back in service soon Renner said

Assistant Fire Chief Henry Spahn said when he arrived at the fire 'flames were shooting to the ceiling of the second floor on the K Street side of the plant

Battling the blaze was ticklish since while there was power water could not be used At first Spahn said the firemen used CO2 (carbon dioxide) and then foam Finally when the power was cut they used a booster line with a spray to smother the blaze

THE DOWNTOWN business district was the area primarily affected Renner explained Other areas affected were the south residential area East O Street and the northern industrial area

Fuel Richardson Consumers test engineer said that all their customers were not but off because a big bus at the 2nd Street station was feeding power to the rest of the city

Renner said that an estimate on the amount of damage could not be made at this time

Another Korea Feared

Yanks Would Do Most Work As Before

WASHINGTON (AP)—Military policymakers especially those in the Army are viewing with concern any plan for a Southeast Asia alliance that would automatically commit American forces as does the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in Europe

This feeling has been strengthened all the more by the outcome of the Geneva conference at which in the opinion of qualified U S officers interviewed today the Communists emerged with the upper hand in the truce to end the fighting in Indochina

The military authorities who asked not to be quoted by name spoke out after State Department officials revealed yesterday that the United States Britain and other nations have agreed to call a conference by September to write a collective security agreement for Southeast Asia

Newer View

U S military chiefs for several years have favored a mutual defense system in that part of the world But that was while the French and Associated Indochinese States seemed not only to be holding their own against the rebels but also to be moving toward the time when they could achieve a military victory

Pentagon informants said the newer view was touched on by Secretary of Defense Wilson this week when he said that military power alone 'doesn't quite handle' situations in which nationalistic feelings are mixed up with subversion propaganda and the technique of boring from within This was a description of how the Reds advanced in Indochina

Some weeks ago the nation's top military advisers—the Joint Chiefs of Staff—were arguing among themselves about the advisability of calling for direct American action to save the French But that was before the fall of Dien Bien Phu to the Communists and the subsequent rapid crumbling of the French will to keep on fighting The Army's chief of staff Gen Matthew Ridgway was the strongest military voice against American intervention then

Another Korea

Ridgway's voice is not alone today, however One Pentagon official summed up the growing military opposition to a NATO style alliance in Southeast Asia this way

It would be another Korea—with a 90 per cent American contribution in manpower and effort

The same official said that action in Southeast Asia would be even more difficult than it was in Korea because the newly nationalistic people to the south have fresh in mind their colonial status under the French that is only now being lifted

Food Hikes Living Cost

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported that rising grocery prices forced the cost of living up one-tenth of 1 per cent in June

The increase was small but it was the second rise in six months and edged the index kept by the Bureau of Labor Statistics close to the peak set last October

BLS announced the June index was 114 1—meaning the cost of living was 14 1 per cent of the 1947 49 average

The record set last October was 114 4 The June level is one-half of 1 per cent higher than a year ago and 13 1 per cent above the June 1950 start of the Korean War

Food prices rose four tenth of 1 per cent in June mainly because of higher prices for fresh fruits some vegetables and coffee Egg milk and meat prices remained stable as did most other consumer items

Food prices have increased for three straight months rising a total of 1 5 per cent

Scientists Span Iron Curtain In Trading Cancer Knowledge

SAO PAULO Brazil (AP)—Scientists from 54 nations on both sides of the Iron Curtain launched a new joint assault against cancer which kills someone in the world every 10 seconds.

Nearly 1,000 physicians chemists physicists biologists and other scientists are conferring here and exchanging their latest knowledge to mobilize better to help the doctors and suffering from cancer.

Brazil invited scientists to the Sixth International Cancer Congress which opened this history making Brazil meeting. The congress's first meeting in Paris in 1900.

Data Transfer

Lectures work and debates will fill a seven day program dealing with the treatment of cancer new scientific research and punishment in combating cancer.

There also will meet informally seeking from or telling to other men and women scientists in the field findings which might supply keys to the cancer they and the profession want.

The congress was formally opened by Dr. Antonio Prudente president of the Brazilian Cancer Institute.

About three hundred papers on other subjects will be read during the congress. Dr. Prudente said he hopes the Iron Curtain countries will be represented.

New Operation

Dr. Prudente said new developments from research in various fields offer great hope and each new fact learned is potentially useful in solving the riddle.

Prior to the opening session Dr. George T. Pack of New York's Memorial Hospital told of a brilliant new operation to cure cancer of the liver. In some cases he said the whole right lobe of the liver—75 to 80 per cent of the organ—had been removed by new surgical techniques. After such operations Dr. Pack said the left lobe regenerates and expands until the liver becomes nearly its original size.

Six of these operations have been performed in the past two years he said. The first patient to undergo the new surgery is living and well today.

Jail Trusties Rescue Tot From Ledge on Rooftop

COUNCIL BLUFFS Iowa (AP)—A 3 year - old Council Bluffs boy was alive and well Friday thanks to prompt action by two county jail trusties who saw the boy stranded on this ledge of a roof 25 feet above the street.

Action Revoking Trucking Authority Given Backing

The Nebraska Supreme Court upheld the State Railway Commission in revoking the trucking authority which had been held by Henry Schmunk of Scottsbluff.

The high court upheld the commission's return of permit Jan. 6 Agee in finding business is Highway Transportation Co. Fremont to take over the authority formerly held by Schmunk.

The Supreme Court said the record sustains the conclusion that Schmunk had in effect gone out of the trucking business when the commission revoked his certificate on Jan. 4 1952 on the grounds of cessation of service. Schmunk started operating a used car lot in Scottsbluff in May 1951 and seems to have decided to discontinue operations under his certificate," the opinion said.

The Supreme Court upheld the Lincoln County District Court in ruling that Mary Brown of North Platte should have a new trial in her personal injury damage suit against Everett Slack operator of a North Platte grocery.

Mary Brown who was 74 at the time sought damages for injuries received in a fall in the store April 23 1952.

The case was tried in November 1953 and after the evidence was in the court dismissed the action on grounds the plaintiff was guilty of contributory negligence. The plaintiff then moved for a new trial and this motion was granted. Attorneys for Slack appealed to the Supreme Court from this new trial grant.

A Hall County District Court decision in favor of the defendant was reversed by the Supreme Court.

George P. and Gerdene P. Mader brought the action originally against Henry W. and Beulah Mettenbrink seeking to force the Mettenbrinks to make an opening in an irrigation dike on their land so water could flow through it to reach Silver Creek thereby restoring an alleged watercourse to its former condition.

The District Court found generally for the Maders but the Supreme Court reversed the decree.

The High Court opinion noted that sometime between 1911 and 1917 the former owners of the Mader land got permission from owners of the Mettenbrink land to build a ditch and make a cut in the bank of Silver Creek to flow surplus water and drain low swampy ground on the Mader land. The court held however that this permission did not develop into a right.

Howland Going to Westmar

Ten May Leave York College

Special to The Journal

LeMARS, Ia.—Dr. A. V. Howland is among 10 faculty and staff members of York College expected to join the Westmar College staff this fall, according to Westmar College Dean G. O. Thompson.

Howland

Dr. Howland, president of the recently-closed college since mid-1952, will become vice president and public relations director effective Sept. 1.

A large part of Dr. Howland's duties will be concerned with closing York College, Dr. Thompson said. Dr. Howland will presumably continue as president of the discontinued school along with the Westmar work, he said.

* * *

OTHER DUTIES of Dr. Howland will be promotional work among United Brethren congregations.

Both Dr. Howland and Dr. D. O. Kime, Westmar president, were in Ohio and could not be reached for comment.

Dr. Thompson said the vice presidency was a newly-created post at Westmar. Dr. Howland was elected vice president by the executive committee of the Westmar College board of trustees. Dr. Thompson said he expected approval by the full board to be a "routine" matter at the group's next meeting in April.

* * *

ALL YORK College staff members under contract for 1955 were offered positions at Westmar, Dr. Thompson said. He listed these as having "signified they are coming to Westmar:"

Dr. W. C. Noll, biology.

Dwane Wilson, physical education.

Dr. Walter E. Bachman, dean of student affairs.

James Koontz, music.

Dr. D. E. Weidler, education and social sciences.

Mrs. Mabel Thomas, book store manager.

Two other staff members, Clarence Attig and Miss Mary Lou Warner, are continuing their studies and will be considered on leave of absence from Westmar, Dr. Thompson said.

Westmar officials expect about 25 former York College students to attend the Iowa school, Dr. Thompson said.

No longer does he lie awake because of excess stomach acid. No longer does he toss and turn with that queasy, restless feeling. He just takes 1 or 2 Tums as a "night-cap" before he goes to bed. WHEAT VOTERS—The outlook for reduced wheat acreages next year is the topic of conversation at School District 106 east of Cheney, one of the polling places in the national referendum on wheat quotas. Discussing the situation are (from left) Harvey C. Ketelhut of Bennet, Edwin Booth of Walton and F. M. Packwood of Bennet, wheat farmers who have just cast their ballots. Reports from Lancaster County polling places indicated a heavier turnout of voters than a year ago. (Journal Photo.)

Federal Authorities Refuse To Accept Lingo Custody

After conferences with the Omaha office, Asst. U.S. Dist. Atty. Charles Thone stated that federal authorities cannot accept custody of 18-year-old Arnold L. Lingo until the case in the state courts is finally adjudicated.

Lingo was ordered released on a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Harry A. Spencer, Lancaster district judge. The state has started appeal proceedings.

Thone explained that, under a Federal Court judgment against Lingo on a different charge it was ordered that the youth not start serving the federal sentence until completion of his state term.

A $25 cash bond, in habeas corpus, was conditioned upon federal acceptance.

Lingo, when 15, with another youth, was convicted in Federal Court March 6, 1953, and sentenced to two years in prison on one count of a three-count indictment, for transporting a hostage from Goodland, Kan. to Phelps County, Neb.

Lingo was sent to the Nebraska Penitentiary for armed robbery and auto theft for 12 and 5 years respectively, terms to run concurrently.

Judge Spencer ruled that the intent of the law is that a juvenile under 16, except when convicted of murder or manslaughter, should be sent to a boys' training school and not a state prison.

Committees Named on Delinquency

Subcommittees were announced following a meeting of Gov. Crosby's steering committee on juvenile delinquency. Dr. Otto G. Hoiberg of the University of Nebraska was named temporary chairman of the committee.

On the legal committee to study Nebraska laws relating to juveniles are Robert A. Nelson, chairman; Judge Paul W. White; James Doyle; Judge C. G. Perry; John J. Wilson; and Alfred G. Ellick.

On the planning committee to lay plans for a state-wide conference are Dr. Frank A. Court, chairman; Mrs. Leonard Campbell; Harold Douthitt; Mrs. Catherine Martin; and Mrs. Gertrude Allen.

Mayme Stukel is chairman of the personnel and finance committee assisted by Otto Ruff, Pat Okura and Mrs. Vernon Chapman.

Members of a committee on organization to lay tentative plans for the structure of the "Nebraska Committee for Youth" are Dr. Hoiberg, chairman; Louis Horne; James Paxton; Mrs. S. W. Epstone; and Mrs. Robbie Turner Davis.

Hearing Aug. 3 On Probation Case

Paul V. Shaw, 41, of Pleasant Dale, arraigned in Lancaster District Court on probation revocation, pleaded not guilty.

Judge John Polk set hearing for Aug. 3. Appearance bond was set at $1,500.

Shaw has been on one-year probation, after pleading nolo contendere (no contest) to a charge of issuing a check with intent to defraud last Nov. 20.

Last Saturday, he pleaded guilty in Dawson County to a similar charge and was placed on probation.

The probation revocation is based on the charge in Dawson County.

Driver Will Appeal Jail Term, Fine

Frank P. Stephens, 30, of 1419 B, filed notice of appeal in Lincoln Municipal Court after he was found guilty of careless driving and driving during suspension of his driver's license.

Stephens had entered a plea of innocent to both counts but, after trial, Municipal Judge John Jacobson found him guilty and assessed a $50 fine and sentenced him to 10 days in the county jail on the driving while his license was under suspension. Judge Jacobson also fined Stephens $25 on the charge of careless driving.

Stephens' appeal will be heard in Lancaster District Court. Judge Jacobson set the appeal bond at $300.

Editorial Comment and Opinion

And Now for Asia

Scarcely was the ink dry on the Geneva treaty which ended a futile war and confirmed the one great success in a series of victories than Britain and the United States set about the preliminaries of a Southeast Asian alliance

Such a grouping of powers undertaken earlier might or might not have reduced the victory of the Soviets in Indo China (and elsewhere), might have kept Viet Nam from its devastating loss may or may not have dissuaded the French from their exhausting and vain struggle to keep their last rich dependency But all that is water over the dam. Foresight isn't enough even could it be assured of accuracy, for nations develop it at varying rates and each is pretty sure to have its blind spots The free world knows now that France made her dreadful error eight years ago in ignoring the nationalist stirrings in Indo China By surrendering its sovereignty then, and helping the Asians build their own state France could have changed the course of history But few realized that in 1946 save possibly scholars and philosophers The new premier, who negotiated an end of the fighting, tossed off some observations a few days ago indicating that he was aware of his country's mistake How far the people will support him remains to be seen

The first aim of the proposed alliance will be appropriately to guard the boundaries fixed by the treaty and also those of Burma and Thailand on which Moscow undoubtedly is casting covetous eyes The British have shown their deep concern and realization of the challenge by calling their first meeting, on implementing the pact Sept 1 rather than months hence as they had indicated Consultations with France are to begin at once and the British are sounding out Nehru who could be an invaluable ally

It begins to look as though one world isn't such a fantasy as it might be But it will not be achieved in a year or in a century, much blood will be shed in achieving it, many vast prejudices worn thin many reverses suffered many disappointments and delays Yet the world is being forced to see that no nation can live to itself alone As time gives perspective the real aggressor itself may assume the garb of a universal solvent or precipitant which once cooled will have started an era whose inversion perhaps will usher in another

A MOMENT'S THOUGHT

Psalms 143 10

Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God—thy spirit is good, lead me unto the land of uprightness.

—Selected by Rev I B Morrison
First Church of God

The Cup That Cheers

Habit is a wonderful thing It can even be a headache to big business But as a corrective to some types of situation it beats everything else An example is the current coffee prospect When the Brazilian shortage sent prices zooming a few months ago, it drove a number of Norteamericanos to such desperate devices as drinking more milk, soft drinks even tea—but not chocolate its fattening Before long a lot of housewives found out that stretching a pound of coffee to 33 cups wouldn't hurt the taste of the concoction (very much) and $1 25 divided by 33 didn't produce a horrifying cost per cup So pretty much everybody went back to drinking coffee enjoying it the more because it cost them more Or did they"

Actually this country is using 10 to 12 per cent more tea than last year In the same period coffee hounds have eased off enough to cut consumption 6 to 8 per cent Meanwhile last year's stockpile preceding the panic, is now coming into the grocery stores here while Brazil is having to buy coffee for its own use

New plantings made four to five years ago (it takes five years to make a coffee crop as most of the world knows by this time) are beginning to enter the markets And on top of that the nonchalant, haughty Brazilian planters were forced to study their own product, and are now telling the world they have developed a new strain that will yield 5 to 10 times as much as the average planting If it produces even twice as much, the effects will be considerable

It's still early to expect prices to slide however warns the U S News & World Report in a copyrighted story World production will be at least 2 per cent below the demand this year and another frost like that which devastated much of the Brazilian crop last winter could send prices climbing again At the moment some Yanquis are stretching their iced coffee with chocolate milk which sounds Parisian but probably isn't

The Slave of the Lamp

Friday's frustrating blackout staged just when hundreds of people were getting up, and continuing through the breakfast hour and the morning trek of thousands to their shops and offices, was a discomforting reminder of what can happen in a mechanized pattern of living Electricity, the cleanest and smoothest of powers has been so closely integrated with daily life during the past five years or so that its occasional failure is almost shocking Few households in Lincoln cannot boast of half a dozen electric gadgets, apart from the almost omnipresent TV and when something goes wrong at the plant, everybody is disconcerted, annoyed or appalled as the case may be

The science of fire fighting has kept pace with the complexity of machinery, else such an incident as this would have been unimaginably dangerous and demoralizing On the one hand firemen used a variety of extinguishing devices while hooking up auxiliary equipment on the other the housewife whose mother may have been a second or third generation pioneer descendant could still make toast and coffee with one hand while dialling the time signal number with the other Broadcasting stations switched over to batteries some store employees had to wait around in the dark a while but in a couple of hours there was scarcely a sign that anything had happened

Of course when the atom is harnessed to the processes of daily living all will be simpler—or else much more complicated Maybe by 1984 the schools will be giving courses in what to do when the switch breaks down

David Lawrence

The French Debacle in Indo-China

WASHINGTON — Maybe the French government and the French people will not realize for some time to come what they have truly lost by the debacle in Indo-China.

Lawrence

For one thing they have lost in America some of that wholehearted faith which has prompted heartfelt faith which has prompted the Congress to spend nearly a billion dollars a year to help the French hold out in Indo-China They may have lost also a reliance by this country on the will of France to fight if the Communist invader marches across Europe In either case its a damaging blow to the prestige of France For never before has the weakness of the French as an American ally been so dramatically demonstrated, and it cannot but hasten the 'agonizing reappraisal' which America will be asked to make now in order to concentrate her money and her manpower on the defense of this country

It is an open secret that American military men have grown increasingly skeptical about the wisdom of maintaining large American forces in Europe which could be faced with the necessity of an emergency evacuation if some future French cabinet suddenly decided to appease the Communist aggressor, as has just been done with Indo-China

For several months now the French government has dilly-dallied with the European Defense Community plan It is well known that the principal opposition inside France to the continuance of the Laniel cabinet was not its inability to liquidate the Indo-China war but its sponsorship of the EDC plan Now with the Indo-China truce a matter of history the question is whether the cabinet of Mendes-France will dare to go ahead with the ratification of the EDC agreement The prospect is a doubtful one and, while not rejecting the EDC plan out of hand, an evasive maneuver may be begun to amend the plan This could amount to the same thing as scuttling it

Undercover Campaign

The 100 Communists in the French parliament, plus the left wing groups there are bitterly opposed to EDC and with the rising tide of Moscow's prestige—manifested dramatically by her domination of the Indo-China settlement—the real undercover campaign of the Soviet government now will be to try to kill EDC

If this happens, a movement here to have American forces brought back home can be expected This would be a tragic alternative because then the Communists would have a free hand in Europe, and West Germany would be sacrificed There are French officials, therefore, who think that, no matter what they do about EDC, the United States will continue her economic and military aid to France. They may be guessing right on this though at the same time it is apparent that the drive to get a "new look" on the military side will not be slowed down.

The main criticism of what has happened in Indo China is coming from Air Force circles where it is insisted that America is investing too much money on uncertain partners—countries where bases may be lost at any moment This makes a case for intercontinental bombers and for a stepping up of naval air power as well so that America's defense against atomic attack will not be dependent on uncertain allies

Trouble in Africa

America has an important Air Base in Morocco The Communists are fomenting more trouble there as they are in Tunisia The northern borders of Africa are infested with Communist saboteurs who are bent on stirring up friction The present cabinet in Paris is well aware of the danger of more revolutionary disturbances in Tunisia and Morocco and is inclined to adopt a conciliatory course and to try giving the nationalistic elements some important concessions These probably will not satisfy them or at least the Communist mischief-makers will see that they do not end the trouble

It is ironical to go back now and read how ready some members of Congress were to condemn Secretary Dulles a few weeks ago as responsible for what was happening in Geneva It is now apparent that the French and British were pulling out He was well aware that the French planned to scuttle Indo China As it turns out Mr Dulles was wisely striving to disassociate America from the appeasement plot He has managed to keep America's moral position fine Hence the United States is in a strong position now to question the good faith of the Communists who have been claiming they were interested in the fulfillment of the aspirations of the people of the Indo China states for full independence Those people now will get the Communist kind of 'independence' so well known to the enslaved populations of Poland and Czechoslovakia

Bars Behind Bars

Kansas City Star Is the Chamber of Commerce missing a bet? We think so For years the county jail has provided fine menus for its patrons on Christmas and Thanksgiving Turkey has been on the table while other jails in the area have provided the usual prison fare which is considerably less than turkey Now the sheriff has installed a small soda fountain from which persons in custody can purchase ice cream concoctions at a price a little below the average outside. All of which shows that Kansas City not only is a fine place to live in (according to an old chamber slogan), it's a fine place to be arrested in

Love's Young Dream

Harlan Miller, Des Moines Register A Warsaw cartoon shows a young worker and his girl friend on a park bench, their arms about each other Their conversation "What about it, darling" 'I promised I'll keep my word Are you sure?" 'Absolutely" When will it be?" 'In a week, at the latest. Perhaps in three days" 'You and me?' 'Yes Together we'll work on the newly delivered machine HD-48!"

From former NU Chancellor R G Gustavson president of the Ford Foundation subsidiary Resources for the Future comes word as to what his organization is doing and contemplates for the future Last December in Washington it sponsored he comprehensive Mid-Century Conference on Resources for the Future, with 400 participants (including myself) A draft report of the conference is being prepared It will be ready by early fall, as a book of 400 to 500 pages constituting a reference work presenting a wide range of viewpoints on a number of long-range resources issues

Dr. Gus' Program

For its continuing program, Resources for the Future is operating on a Ford grant of $3 410 000 to support a five-year program of research and education in the field of natural resources With unexpended money previously received, this will finance a program at an average annual level of about $750,000.

"As we see the field of Resources for the Future" Dr Gustavson reports, "it includes all of the soil, water and mineral resources covered at the Mid-Century Conference together with other natural resources areas that could not be given major attention there Our program is fundamental and applied research and in education will be as imaginative and constructive as we can make it In comparison with all that needs doing, the work of Resources for the Future will be on a modest scale '

Lincoln's highest-ranking sub-cabinet member Clarence Davis the newly-confirmed undersecretary of interior writes I had a lot of fun last week when I was in Eve Bowring's office and Margaret Chase Smith came up there for some pictures of the two lady senators, which ended up with some shots of me standing between them I will bet nobody else has yet achieved that distinction anyhow!"

Man of Distinction

He says he suspects the 'most important thing that will cross my path in the next year' will be the water resources program which the President has delegated to a three-man Cabinet committee (Agriculture, Interior and Defense Departments) with Secretary of Interior McKay as chairman

'I think there is plenty of work for all to do, meaning all the departments and all the agencies of government," he writes, "and some of the petty departmental jealousies that have been prevalent in the past I hope can be entirely swept away in the comprehensive ideas that should be expressed in the (forthcoming) policy statment" Amen'

Misconception

ALEXANDRIA — Dorothy Thompson's piece in The Journal (July 22) emphasizes the fact that the H-Bomb overhangs us all all powerful, much like a tornado funnel that has not touched the ground but may do so at any moment but that our government refuses to face that terrifying fact of our existence Our foreign affairs are being conducted precisely as if there were no H-Bomb at all But there is

It seems to me this conduct stems from one simple misconception of our history Dulles seems to think that we fought the Revolutionary War primarily for independence We did indeed, fight for independence but that was not the primary goal We fought because our human rights were being violated We tried to get King George to recognize us as equals of our fellowmen in England He would not

So we fought for independence not just to get independence but to get our rights as human beings But Dulles conducted our foreign policy, which had better be called world policy puts us in the position of being primarily interested in seeing a nation gain independence not as we are and always have been primarily interested in seeing that we and everybody else gets treatment fit for a human being

Administrative Aide

LINCOLN—I was very interested in L E Aylsworth's letter (Public Mind July 16) in response to the opinions expressed by me regarding the proposed hiring by the City Council of an administrative aide His remarks are obviously offered sincerely and constructively and indicate an alert intelligence of Lincoln's city government which if shared by a greater number of our voters, could only result in better governing devices

There is no doubt that the mayor and City Council are over-burdened This is plainly true only because they are trying to handle a full-time job with part-time effort Obviously we need a full-time crew to run our city affairs but why do we drag along with the part-time outfit who come on the job one day a week to 'make like the boss' In the present situation we have accumulated full time directors and administrators and their effectiveness and efficiency are only hobbled and hamstrung because they lack the executive authority we have so ungainly bestowed upon a group of outsiders who look in on the job once a week

Mr Aylsworth has very accurately described this kind of operation as 'a nameless hybrid, falsely dubbed a 'modified city manager plan' that the test of time and experience proved to be a flop"

I am not prejudiced in favor of any specific system of city government, and I unproudly admit my knowledge of this subject is all too limited but I do sincerely believe our present municipal government is not the best we can devise I believe the basic fault lies in the procedure of vesting executive and legislative authority in a group whose chief concern is other personal business while only a relatively small portion of their time is given to community problems and needs

GRANT STAHNKE

Bow Hunting

LINCOLN—Did you read the item 'Only Predators Legal for Bow (Lincoln Journal July 21)' Well that is a laugh on Nebraska Forty of our states sell bow hunting licenses Others permit it and two prohibit it by law reported, Nebraska and Kansas

Now here are some figures compiled by Michigan State from the Game Commission statistics 184 bow hunting licenses sold to resident hunters in 1937 Through the following 15 years this number increased to 27 542 licenses in 1952 at $3 50 each With special bow hunting seasons and areas they do not fear this 'waste of resources' referred to by this writer The non-resident licenses in the above period rose from 10 in 1937 to 1,797 in 1952 Those figures are included in a table of statistics published in Archery magazine for January, 1954

The National Field Archery Association has set up standards in distance, target size and rules of practice by which to train the bowman in distance and hazard calculation to improve the chances of hitting their game on the first shot These are increasingly paying off each year. Conservation programs are now placing greater joy of the hunt by a greater number of hunters because the food obtained is no longer a matter of economy It takes only common sense to realize that bow hunting will never decimate or reduce our wildlife supply to a dangerous degree.

The modern hunting bow is no longer a mere bent stick of wood. It is a product of scientific engineering involving synthetic materials of recent development. The manufacture of this product is fast becoming a major industry When will our Nebraska bowmen be able to hunt legally in their home state as do our friends in 40 other states?

Divorce Granted!

By Howard Whitman

This is the fifth of 12 articles in which Howard Whitman, nationally prominent writer on social issues, gives a full, frank report on the problems of divorce.

Part 5

Next Wife (or Husband) Any Better?

Thousands of people seek divorce as a relief from misery They have the idea that if they try again they will do better They rationalize, especially where there are children that even the trauma of divorce would be better than perpetuating an unhappy home.

This is easy reasoning—but false

In the great majority of cases divorce does not relieve misery because the misery is not so much in the marriage as it is in the individuals themselves Since they cannot divorce their own personalities they take the misery right along with them into the next marriage, and the next. Thus the partners instead of both being miserable under one roof, are miserable under two roofs

The weight of evidence favors their staying together and working out their personality problems, rather than trying to run away from something that is within them

Only Unhappiness

There are, of course successful remarriages But they are the exception not the rule As Dr Abraham Stone, noted New York marriage counselor put it Occasionally a new life opens up in another marriage but generally the easy divorce—jumping into it without real efforts to save the marriage—brings only unhappiness The unhappiness of the divorced woman is one of the tragedies of our times and let the man it is equal although he usually doesn't feel it as deeply until later on '

This is the pattern, as statistical surveys reveal it

A study of Iowa and Missouri divorce records by Thomas P Monahan in 1952 showed that "remarriages are not as enduring as first marriages and the probability of divorce rises with each successive marriage" In Iowa remarriages (following both death and divorce) account for one-sixth of all marriages Yet remarried persons account for one-fourth of all divorces

Sociologist Paul H Landis in a study based on 1950 census data concluded that remarriages are about 50% less stable than first marriages

And the dean of statisticians Louis I Dublin former statistical chief at the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co reports not only that remarried people have a high divorce rate but that the frequency of divorce rises substantially with each successive marriage '

The inescapable conclusion is that in most cases (there are exceptions, to be sure) divorcing and remarrying is a dubious progress from the frying pan into the fire

Pick Same Kind

The reason is that people usually go right on picking the same kind of mate' declared Case Work Director Ruth Joyner at the Family Service of Memphis Tenn 'They picked the first wife or husband to complement certain needs—usually negative needs—and when this marriage fails they pick someone else to fill the same needs '

These are known as the "repeaters" the chronic divorce and remarriage cases who seem caught in some kind of matrimonial treadmill The treadmill is, of course their own personalities They run and run but still they are in the same place Thus Dr Edmund Bergler of New York concludes 'The neurotic conflicts in marriage should be treated psychiatrically and not in divorce courts' As many disappointed individuals eventually discover, you can divorce a spouse but not a neurosis

Here are typical case examples

Mr R, a successful architect, must always marry a girl who will make life difficult for him He has divorced two who were spendthrifts, self-seeking driving females—and now is about to marry a third who is the same

Miss C started out as a designer She married a young boy she had to support, finally divorced him when he refused to work She made a success of her career and found herself with huge earnings This time she married a playboy—and put him on an allowance Another divorce She is now seriously deciding for her third marriage between a struggling playwright, whom she would have to support, and a penniless promoter who has gone through the fortunes of two previous wives

They Remarry

Sometimes they don't even shop around for a new partner but simply remarry the same one In Chicago, Circuit Court Judge Julius H Miner related, "One couple specifically asked if they could have their marriage ceremony performed by me. When they appeared I recognized them as a couple I had divorced just two weeks before '

The repeat pattern is frequent with the wives of alcoholics Sometimes they divorce and remarry the same man, often they divorce one alcoholic and then marry another and sometimes another They can't seem to get out of the pattern.

Psychiatrists supply the reasons The woman who marries an alcoholic often is the martyr type She has an unconscious need to suffer, she likes to be the poor, self sacrificing victim whom other people can feel sorry for Often she unconsciously likes the idea of her husband's helplessness she wants control

If a man is not an alcoholic to begin with, such a woman may help make him one. Here is the thumbnail history of Mr T, as summed up by a psychiatrist who is treating him

Mr T had trouble with drinking when he entered marriage 12 years ago, but he was not an alcoholic His wife often berated him for not earning more money, and as the years went by she began to taunt him for being a failure' His drinking grew heavier and less controlled In the last three years he has succumbed entirely He is a severe periodic drinker, whose 'binges' usually follow his wife's attacks on him for being no good and a failure

Drives Him to Drink

'Whenever Mr T stops drinking and resolves to break the cycle Mrs T will do something to force him off the deep end again She will chide him for being unsuccessful or she will pick a quarrel with him. When I tried to get him to attend meetings of Alcoholics Anonymous his wife deterred him several times She always had logical' reasons—such as that he might stop and drink on the way '

The psychiatrist concluded, 'I am forced to regard this woman as an equal, or greater, psychiatric problem than the man"

The chronic nature of divorce spills over even to the next generation Parents who rush into divorce in the illusion, or rationalization, that they are making things better for the children seldom realize that they are setting up a pattern of divorce in the children's lives Children of divorced parents are more likely to turn to divorce when their own marriages hit rough spots later on They have a pattern for failure in marriage but no pattern for success

Reviewing a batch of cases which had come to a family agency, I was surprised to note that nearly every one involved married people whose own homes had been broken when they were children "That is the predominant pattern," the case work director commented

Circuit Court Commissioner H Collis Reid in Louisville, Ky said he had particularly noted cases where women seeking divorce had brought their mothers in to testify 'The records in case after case showed that the mothers had been divorced too he said I'm beginning to feel that divorce is 'inherited' If mother and father stuck it out through thick and thin, then the children are more likely to do the same But if the children saw their own parents turn to divorce as a way out, they are inclined to turn to it also"

Thus the tragedy is compounded

Tomorrow THE REAL REASONS WHY COUPLES BREAK UP True reasons are rarely given in court

ROBERT S. ALLEN Reports

Rhee Will Ask U.S. for More Aid

WASHINGTON—There is a lot more than social hoopla and international good willing behind next week's visit of President Syngman Rhee.

Showdowns of far-reaching consequence will take place during his stay

Allen

The aged South Korean (Rhee admits being around 80 and is probably older) is bringing with him a long list of military and other demands, and US authorities have a number of highly important matters to settle with him

Also, each side is both friendly and annoyed with the other The relationship is a curious mixture of harmony and acerbity Both feel the other is "difficult" at times That view applies particularly to Rhee, who has wrangled in one way or another with virtually every American official who has dealt with him

A mystery has popped up in connection with his trip

The octogenarian has secretly bought a residence in Washington

It was a personal purchase had nothing to do with the ROK government, which has a handsome embassy on fashionable upper Massachusetts Avenue where many foreign missions are located The house Rhee bought is a private home

Surmise in official circles is that it's for his Austrian wife

She is years younger than Rhee, and it is assumed this house is part of plans for her welfare if she survives him She married him before he returned to Korea after World War II and had never been there prior to that. While Mrs. Rhee stays out of the limelight, she is very active in her husband's inner councils and powerfully influences his views and dealings.

She is not popular in various ROK army and political quarters Average age of ROK generals and colonels is 32 and new political leaders coming to the fore are not much older

In South Korea it is deemed unlikely Mrs Rhee will remain there after her husband's death

* * *

THE LINE UP—Rhee's possible demise is a major US problem, in several ways

Although high-handed stubborn and willful Rhee is a patriot and hero and is admired and respected if not loved, by his people He is an outstanding leader and his death or serious illness, would be a grave loss to his country and the US

Beynon Strength Lies In Non-Political Talks

This article i sone of a series of on-the spot campaign reports by Journal political writers

By CLARKE ATHOMAS
Journal Capitol Reporter

SUPERIOR — Non political speeches appeared to be a strong weapon in the campaign arsenal of Ira Beynon of Lincoln running for congress from the First District

Campaigning for public office for the first time the Lincoln attorney in an appearance before the Superior Lions Club continued his technique of non political speeches in which he relates his experiences as director of real properties for the U S Department of Defense

Not relying solely on speeches Beynon made a store-to-store tour of the downtown areas of Geneva Hardy and Red Cloud

In his Superior speech Beynon told his audience that too many defense installations are concentrated in the East where they might be subject to crippling attacks in this H-bomb age He asserted that midwesterners must demand that more installations be placed in this part of the country

Although the speech was non-political Beynon s accounts of his nine months of service in Washington apparently left a political impression in som minds

FOR EXAMPLE after the speech, Oz Keifer Bostwick farmer said, "We need you in Washington, Ira, to represent this district because you know your way around back there"

Beynon in touring the towns frequently asked local political leaders how his race looked

Ray Cellar Geneva lawyer said You ll do all right You ve gotthe qualifications"

But others pointed out the biggest obstacle facing Beynon That is the vote-getting abilities of the name of Beynon s chief opponent, Phil Weaver of Falls City

In his first call in Geneva, Beynon was asked about this by insurance man Jahn Bixby hTe candidate answered 'I just tell people my father was a farmer and not a governor'

Weaver's father was tht late Nebraska Gov A J Weaver

* * *

OTHERS SUCH as Fillmore Co Atty John Gewacke of Geneva pointed out t hat Beynon filed late months after Weaver started campaigning

But in his conversations Beynon expressed confidence that 'the business people and lawyers are glad I filed" He added that he felt local Republican political leaders would help him because of his work for the party when he was national committeeman from Nebraska

Rain greeted the candidate as he toured this Nuckolls County territory and that inevitably brought up the subject of national farm program

Beynon who has a number of farms of his own in Lancaster Kearney and Perkins Counties has come out for price supports at 90 per cent of parity In visiting Keifer s farm in the Bostwick irrigation district, Beynon said he thought Nebraska should have someone in Congress who would speak up for the farmers against the allegation that they are getting rich from subsidies

Keifer said he thought farmers are worried about prices and crop quotas and this could be an important issue this election year

Crete Pool to Be Dedicated to Loyd Oleson

Special to The Journal

CRETE—This city is making a big splash

And well it can After more than three years talking planning financing and working Crete's new swimming pool is completed and in use

Delegates from six civic organizations were named to a central planning committee in March of 1952 A year later land was given by Al Johnson for the pool site in the southeast part of the city

The pool which cost approximately $27 000 plus a large amount of donated labor was wholly financed by donations and subscriptions by Crete businessmen householders and organizations No tax money was used

Jerry Parker of the city park board said that about $5 000 remains to be raised in order to finish paying for the pool

The man most directly responsible for the new pool according to Parker and the Crete Chamber of Commerce is Loyd Oleson registrar at Doane College He has guided the activities of the citizens Swimming Pool Association which has been in charge of the project and solicitations

Oleson was named Man of the Year by the Chamber of Commerce

A ceremony has been planned to dedicate the pool to Oleson

Construction of the pool was begun early in the spring a year ago and the idea originated a year before that

Parker said the program to build the pool was strictly a community project He said that there naturally was considerable difference of opinion particularly in regard to the location of the pool

The pool is in the city park and was presented to the city by the Swimming Pool Association The city will be in charge of it Parker said

Mere Mention

Representatives of Cities Discuss Use of Parking Meter Money

GRAND ISLAND (AP)—Representatives of several Nebraska cities were expected to meet with attorneys for the League of Municipalities here to discuss a parking meter dispute arising from a district court suit in McCook

Grand Island Mayor John Martin was to preside over the meeting at which the cities were to attempt to find a common ground on the problem of whether fines from parking meters should go to cities or to school districts

Any Nebraska city with parking meters was invited to attend the meeting

THE QUESTION of who should get the parking meter overparking fines has been disputed by the McCook school board The city now keeps the money claiming the money paid for overparking is not actually a fine

The city contends that 10 cents of every overparking fine is for the privilege of parking It contends the balance should be used for operation and maintenance of the meters

However the McCook school board contends the overparking charges are fines which by statute must be turned over to the school district It said in its brief that the city ordinance giving the money to the city is a device for evasion of the statutes

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL S office late in 1953 informed North Platte that the money belonged to the school districts according to a section of the state constitution

Since the court ruling in the McCook case presumably would apply to other cities the case has evoked state wide interest

Opinion is divided in the various cities Omaha whose revenue from parking meter fines is largest gives the money to the school board

Easy-Does-It With Desserts

Take a Dip and Dress It Up

Everybody's favorite in the good old summer-time is cooling delicious ice cream Ice cream with cake fresh frozen or canned fruit or with a variety of sauces makes dessert planning for the homemaker an easier job this time of the year when the less time spent in the kitchen the better

This year there's a brand new technique for making refrigerator ice cream By following a few set rules and using this basic recipe you can't miss making a creamy smooth ice cream The secret behind the success is homogenized instant pudding the very same pudding you've been serving your family all winter long

By using instant pudding to make ice cream you cut down the mixing time to a minute and the freezing time to 2 or 3 hours In addition it completely eliminates the beating usually called for after the mixture has partially frozen

Here is a basic recipe plus an inexpensive way of making ice cream sandwiches In using both recipes follow these general rules

The colder the milk the better the ice cream

Cream in place of milk gives smoother results

Fast freezing and proper storage are important

In a refrigerator set for fast freezing ice cream should be firm in 2 to 3 hours and remain firm when control is normal

Refrigerator ice cream is at its best when eaten as soon as firm

Refrigerator Ice Cream

1 cup light cream
1 cup cold milk
1 package homogenized instant pudding (any flavor)

Pour cream and milk into a deep mixing bowl Add pudding homogenized instant pudding comes in four flavors chocolate vanilla butterscotch and coconut cream) Beat until well mixed about 1 minute Pour into a freezer tray Freeze in 1 firm 2 to 3 hours in freezing compartment with control set for fast freezing ice cream freezer Turn refrigerator control to normal for storage Makes 4 to 5 servings

Ice Cream Sandwiches

6 [illegible]
1 package [illegible]
1 cup cold cream or milk
1 pint [illegible]
[illegible] honeycombed

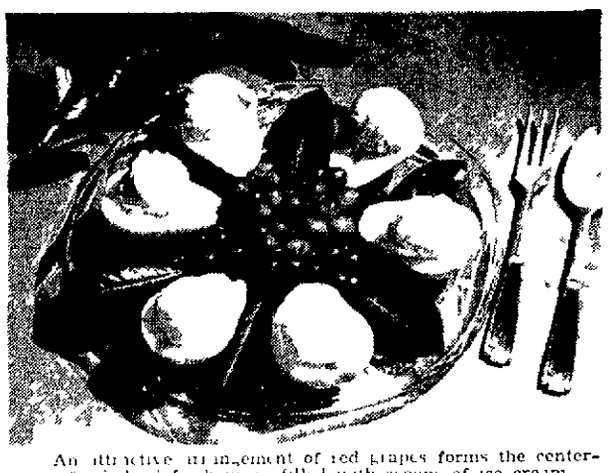
Cut 4 graham crackers to fit in bottom of refrigerator tray Cut remaining crackers to fit same size (To keep crackers from crumbling before cutting place a moist paper towel over the crackers for a second or two) Pour cold milk and evaporated milk in a deep mixing bowl (a two-quart measuring cup is ideal) Add pudding Beat until well mixed about 1 minute Pour over 4 graham crackers in refrigerator tray Top with remaining 4 crackers Freeze until firm in refrigerator freezing compartment with control set for fast freezing or in freezer Do not serve cut around each sandwich and lift out with pancake turner For 8 smaller servings cut each sandwich in half Makes 4 or 8 servings

Fresh fruit and ice cream combine in the following dessert suggestion

Frosty Pear Dessert

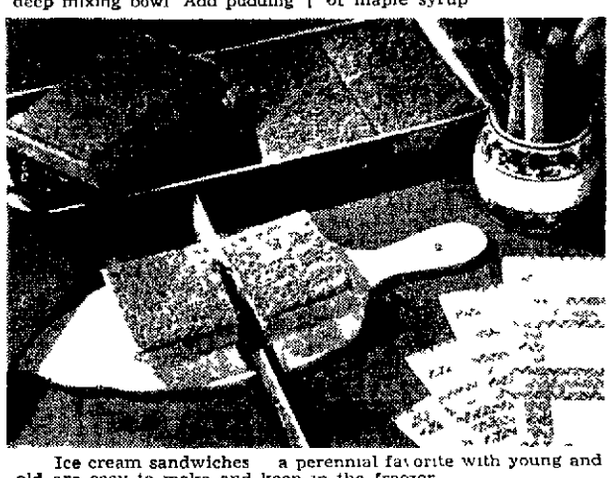
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

Wash pears halve and core Place cut side up on large platter or chop plate Brush with acid fruit juice if you wish to prepare in advance Wash grapes and mound in center of plates Then when ready to serve place scoop of ice cream or sherbet on top of each pear half Garnish plate with washed garden leaves Serves 6



An attractive arrangement of red grapes forms the centerpiece for halved fresh pears filled with scoops of ice cream

Please the entire family with a slice of angel food cake topped with a dip of vanilla ice cream and a pour-on sauce of maple syrup



Ice cream sandwiches a perennial favorite with young and old are easy to make and keep in the freezer

Debbie Has 142 Pairs of Shoes

By HUBBARD KEAVY

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — If you, young lady, were in Debbie Reynolds' shoes, any of her 142 pairs, you would have to have scads of clothes, too. You would keep them in closets too small, in boxes under all of the beds in your tiny house and in the garage made into a guest room.

You would have four very formal formals and at least 20 short formals. You would wear your formals about once a year, because as a movie star-let you couldn't let your admirers down by wearing the seem outfit too often.

You'd wear a size five dress, but if you couldn't find fives you'd buy sevens and have your mother alter them. You'd watch for sales and buy in quantity. For instance, the other day you would have bought 20 pairs of shoes (sizes 4 and 4½) because they were on sale. You'd have taken only 45 minutes for this sizable purchase.

* * *

IF YOU were Debbie you'd have "Oh, a whole mess of cocktail dresses and suits—maybe 15 in all." And you'd remember what you wore each time you went out with Eddie Fisher, because if you were Debbie you'd be dating Eddie.

You'd have drawers full of slacks and pedal pushers, of shorts and T-shirts, boxes of sweaters, some not yet out of their factory wrappings, and a dozen swimming suits "Funny thing," you'd say if you were this girl, "when I couldn't afford swimming suits I always had one faded one. Now that I can afford them, people give them to me."

* * *

IN YOUR wardrobe also would be 30 skirts and, I know because I counted them for you, 45 blouses. And an uncounted number of winter suits and jersey blouses which I couldn't count because they were in the cedar chest I was sitting on in Debbie's bedroom.

IF YOU WERE DEBBIE. . .This is what it would be like if you, young lady, were in Debbie Reynolds shoes! (AP Wirephoto)

You wouldn't have too many furs because you don't like them too well. The demands of the business would require two. "A beaver coat for winter and a platinum mink stole are all I have." You'd have two dressy evening sweaters, both in white, one trimmed in white mink and one in gold leaf.

All of your $750 weekly salary wouldn't be spent on clothes, if you were Debbie. Only a very small portion of it, actually, because your mother would make more than half your dresses. And you'd keep on wearing things for years and years because your height and weight would stay the same.

* * *

JEWELRY would be unimportant; a few pieces of costume jewelry. That's all that would be in your jewel box except an even dozen fraternity pins—no two alike—but "they're not jewelry—heck, they're—well, you know how fellas are."

You'd choose simple things in gay, happy colors. You wouldn't want stuff that is too frilly "because men don't like girls like me to be TOO feminine, do they? What I mean is, skip the ixy-poo."

I know about this interpretive writing, boos, but I'm a square—can't dig that ixy-poo.

Conservation Benefits Included in Tax Bill

Compiled From News Wires

OMAHA—A Washington tax expert predicted that one tax revision bill likely to be passed by Congress would allow farmers benefits for soil conservation work.

H C Kirkpatrick said the bill would allow farmers to deduct a per cent of their gross income in any year for expenses of soil and water saving projects.

The projects would include leveling grading terracing contour plowing diversion channels drainage ditches and windbreak planting.

Kilpatrick was here as a speaker at the institute on the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

THE REVISED tax laws that Congress soon will enact will mean almost no change in the tax forms individuals will fill out next March Wilber A Slowinski Washington tax expert said.

However Slowinski said a movement was under way that would eliminate the annual March headache for about 35 million taxpayers. It would end the filing of tax returns by those whose entire net tax is withheld from Slowinski said that system might be ready within a year.

The changes in tax law that Congress will make will affect more taxpayers than any other revenue measure in the nation's history tax expert Edwin S Cohen of New York said.

COHEN SAID one of the most far reaching changes so far as business goes is the one to permit firms to deduct more for depreciation on plants and equipment when new and less when older.

This he said will stimulate investment in new plants and equipment although over a long period of years the depreciation amounts will average out about the same as under the present law.

About 600 attorneys and internal revenue agents from 10 states were here for the three-day institute sponsored by the Nebraska Bar Association.

Man Behind Those Four-Minute Miles Trains 'Now and Then'

By MILTON MARMOR

LONDON (AP) — Christopher John Chataway races opponents instead of a stop watch.

Yet, ironically, at 23, he holds a strange sort of athletics fame. Chataway ran second in both four-minute miles—and he's not a miler at all.

The red-haired former Oxford distance runner paced Roger Bannister to his epic 3:59.4 mile on May 6 in the blustery Oxford race that ended the myth of the four-minute mile barrier. Then, on June 21, Chataway went up to Turku in Finland and chased Australia's John Landy to his 3:58 mile.

Bannister and Landy went after that four-minute mile with dogged determination. Chataway is something else again. He's 5-feet-9, weighs 149, doesn't know the length of his stride and lacks interest in pulse rates.

He never worries about oxygen intake. He trains when the weather is agreeable. Chris smokes half a pack of cigarettes a day, more in winter when not training. He takes a drink now and then, especially stout ale now that he works for a brewer.

He also can run like blazes and he runs to win. If a record falls, so much the better, but to Chataway the race is the thing.

He didn't expect to finish close to Roger at Oxford and he didn't. Yet his time was his then best ever, 4:07.2, not bad when you consider he is a three-miler.

Chris makes it clear he did not pace Landy. He raced him. He was with him until the last lap and finished the mile in 4:04.4, which puts him far up in the list of all-time mile clockings.

"If it hadn't been for Chris Chataway's chasing me around the track I would never have made it," Landy said after his great mile. "I knew he was immediately behind me and that he would not hesitate to pass me if I slowed up the very least."

CHATAWAY—Runs to win.

Chataway also helped Freddie Green, 28, set a new 3-mile record of 12:32.2. Chataway held a 15-yard lead near the end but Green came on in a neck-and-neck finish.

In Britain people speak of their favorite athletes as they do of members of the family. Bannister is an aloof sort but Britons are proud of him. They speak of such plodding distance aces as marathoner Jim Peters and six-miler Gordon Pirie with just a bit of amazement and respect.

But for Chataway they have a deep affection. He epitomizes everything fine in British sports.

Those who saw Chataway at Helsinki in the 1952 Olympics 5,000-meter final will never forget him. To Britons he was something, even though the incredible Emil Zatopek of Czechoslovakia won and Christ came home fifth.

Chataway was only 21 then. He came pounding around the last turn with the world's best. He stumbled on the inside rail. There's a famous sports photograph of Zatopek storming into the lead and Chataway sprawled on the track.

Chris picked himself up and finished in 14:18, almost 10 seconds faster than anything he had done before. And he had no alibis; he just ran himself out.

Chataway has made only one calculated effort to break a world record. Bannister helped him go after the two-mile mark of 8:40.4 established by Belgian Gaston Reiff. It's one of the better ones on the books. Chris miscalculated his pace during the inside laps and missed out by a mere six-tenths of a second.

Little Keller Course Proves Not so Easy

ST. PAUL, Minn (AP)—The real test of whether the bleak little Keller Public Course is capable of giving the top golf professionals a challenge, or whether it's just a drive-and-pitch layout for Sunday swingers, got under way today with the beginning of match play in the 36th PGA championship.

Keller had been ridiculed before the tournament as being too easy for such players, but as scores began to mount in yesterday's second qualifying round, one acute observer remarked:

"This course is so easy it's getting tough."

That's about what happened during the two days of qualifying and what's more likely to happen in the man-to-man contests. The pro sharpshooters, seeing possible birdies on almost every hole, tried too hard to get them.

The result was that Ed Oliver, the rotund "Mr. Pork Chops" from Lemont, Ill., breezed off with the medal and $250—protesting all the time that he didn't want them—with a score of 66-70—136. That's two strokes higher than the PGA qualifying record made on reputedly tougher courses.

Jack Burke and Cary Middlecoff came in with 137's and it took a score of 147 to get into the 64-man match play bracket. That's some sharp scoring but hardly taking apart the tournament par of 36-35—71 for the level 6,852-yard Keller Course.

Today's program called for two rounds of 18-hole matches. That kind has to be won or lost in a hurry and presents a real temptation to gamble on the "birdie" holes.

The first round was scheduled to start at 8 a.m. (CST) and the second at 1 p.m. The survivors of this traditional "Black Friday" program will go on a 36-hole basis on through the final Tuesday

The pairings, made strictly according to the PGA "numerical" system, based on qualifying scores, were filled with possibilities of furst round upsets.

Oliver, who claims there's a "jinx" that goes with winning the qualifying medal, drew Jackson Bradley of Houston, Tex. as his first round rival. Bradley, a "home" pro who plays in only a few tournaments each year, knocked off Ellsworth Vines and Tommy Bolt in the first two rounds of the PGA last year.

Three-time champion Sam Snead, who barely got inside the qualifying limit as his stiff-necked swing carried him to a pair of 73's, drew little Tony Holguin of Midlothian, Ill., another dangerous opponent.

Burke, who just missed tying for the medal when he bogeyed the last hole yesterday, went up against Dutch Harrison, who has traveled the tournament trail some 18 years and has won his full share.

For the first time in some years there wasn't a playoff for the last qualifying spot—but it took an odd sort of disqualification to make the bracket come out even.

Veteran Maurrie O'Connor of Belleville, N. J., a PGA vice-president, shot a 72 on his second round, only to be ruled out when it was discovered that he had signed a card which had the wrong score on one hole.

Upset Sparks Men's Tourney

Dick Spangler Falls to Stroh After Defeating Byron Adams

OMAHA (AP)—One round of play Friday was scheduled to cut the field to four for the 36-hole semifinals of the Nebraska Men's Amateur golf tournament at the Happy Hollow course Saturday.

The eight who survived early play were matched as follows in quarterfinal action:

Wally Hopp of Hastings vs. Carl Poling of Beatrice.

Bill Martin of Omaha vs. Bob Fraser of Omaha.

Ralph (Whitey) Reed of Lincoln vs. Gene Chadwell of Lincoln.

Stan Stroh of Lincoln vs. Don Bell of Plattsmouth.

Two more favorites were put into the discard in third round play Thursday. Among those eliminated was Dick Spangler Jr. of Lincoln, titlist in 1952 who bowed to Stroh 2-1. Earlier in the day, Spangler had eliminated another former champ, Byron Adams of Fairbury.

Bell turned in one of the top surprises when he beat Bob Astelford of Omaha 3-2

Stroh, a golfing buddy of Spangler, was one down to the 1952 champion at the turn, but evened the match with a birdie on number 10. Stroh went one up on 15 and cinched the match on 17 with a birdie.

A runner-up in 1949 and an expectant father, Stroh looms as a definite title threat.

Spangler's loss followed a fine round against Adams, who beat the Lincolnite in the 1951 finals.

Fraser appears to have a good shot at the title. He beat Walt Smola of Omaha, 4-3 in their third round play Thursday. Defending champion Reed beat Mark Stevens of Omaha, 1 up.

Chadwell defeated Stan Bednarz of Omaha, 2-1. Hopp beat Lou Dropinski of Omaha, 2-1, Poling defeated Vince McAndrew of Omaha, 2-1, and Martin defeated Gordon Saffer of Omaha, 2-1.

Gary Blakeman of Norfolk, who knocked medalist Gordon Klewwe of Omaha out of contention in the first round, was beaten by Dropinski, 4-3, in the second round.

Optimists, Falls City Clash Sunday

The field was complete Friday in preparation for the American Legion area baseball tournament set to begin at Hastings Sunday.

Lincoln's Optimists collide with Falls City in the tourney opener at 6:30 p.m. and host Hastings meets Fairbury at 8 p.m. The tournament is a double-elimination affair, with winners and losers meeting Monday night.

All four teams won consecutive victories in district tournament play. The Optimists smothered York, 12-1 and 11-4 to boost their season record to 19-2, Hastings, defending state champions, upped its season total to 16-9 after dropping Geneva, 10-2 and 14-0.

Falls City took two straight from Plattsmouth, 10-1 and 13-3 while Fairbury nabbed a pair of close ones from Beatrice, 1-0 and 7-4.

Other area tourneys begin Sunday at Omaha, Grand Island, and Ogallala. One team from each will earn a ticket to the state tournament at Columbus, beginning Aug. 1.

Horseshoes Still Favored

MURRAY, Utah (AP)—Guy Zimmerman, Danville, Calif., who once tossed a perfect game in the 1948 tournament, yesterday led qualifiers into the World's Horseshoe Pitching championship which opens match play today.

Zimmerman, who threw 44 ringers in 44 attempts at Milwaukee in the 1948 tourney, scored 544 points. He aced Fernando Isais, Los Angeles, who had a 540 Isais was the champion from 1947 to 1952

The man who beat Isais for the title last year, Ted Allen, Boulder, Colo., qualified automatically. He and 35 others start match play tonight. Twelve will be eliminated at the end of the throwing tonight.

By Tuesday, the field will be narrowed to four men. Wednesday the top two will clash in the three out of five games for the championship.

Allen and Isais, who have shared the championship for the past 20 years, are figured to meet in the finals.

Broomstick Arm Doesn't Halt Cyclist

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A Detroit girl, the 1952 Women's Bicycle racing champion, is determined to compete in the 1954 race here Saturday with a broomstick section sticking out of a cast on her broken right arm

Joanne Robinson broke the arm in two places while practicing for the race Wednesday. A broomstick was placed in the cast and removed when the cast was partially dry.

Her plan is to stick the broomstick back in the cast hole Saturday and use it as a hand as she races.

Directors of the Amateur Bicycle Racing League of America, however were generally opposed to the idea. They will meet today to consider the girl's demand that she be allowed to participate in the race.

"If they won't let me race, I hope it rains," she said.

Miss Robinson was eager to regain the championship that she lost in St. Louis last year by two points.

NU Fund Program Launched

Wheels were turning Thursday for the drive to raise $40,000 in grant-in-aid funds for University of Nebraska athletes.

The special "fund raising" issue of the Nebraska Alumnus, official publication of the Nebraska Alumni Association, has gone to press

A four-man sub-committee consisting of Chairman Elsworth Du Teau, Athletic Director Bill Orwig, Editor Phil Holman and Alumni Secretary James S. Pittenger, gave the final okay that started the campaign issue rolling.

The 32-page magazine will be in the mails not later than Aug. 15, according to Chairman Du Teau. A copy will be sent to each graduate or former student at the University, approximately 80,000.

The campaign, in strict accordance with the Big Seven and NCAA regulations, will enable the University's Athletic Department to expand its grant-in-aid program this year.

Chairman DuTeau emphasized that the campaign "will be a one-shot program" and said that by next year the athletic department should be able to support the entire program.

Burt Greenstein lashed the ball to Joe Kirrene at third. He tossed to Al Jacinto at second. Jacinto tagged the bag and then the runner coming to the base.

It was a neatly executed triple play for Colorado Springs against the Chiefs in the eighth inning. It was the third this season in the Western League—all by the Sky Sox.

"Well, that's one thing we lead the league in," remarked Sox Manager Eddie Stewart.

He was bemoaning the fates which have shoved his club into the Western League cellar, 30 games back of first-place Denver. The latest defeat was a 4-3 loss to Lincoln Thursday night at Sherman Field.

Colorado Springs has now won but one of its last 18 games, most of the losses coming in close contests. "I never knew there were so many ways to lose games," Stewart said.

He had found another way Thursday night.

Red McQuillen, one of the hottest stickers in the league, showed the former Chicago White Sox outfielder a new method.

Red slammed out four straight base hits and, aided by a couple of wierd bounces, sent home three of the four Lincoln runs. It ran Red's hitting streak to six straight times at bat and seven in his last eight trips.

This prodigious performance by the redhead helped Frank Stewart to his second Western League win on a tidy 7-hit job.

McQuillen At Work

In the first a hit batsman and walk put a man on second. Red hit a bouncer to second which hopped over Al Jacinto's head and pushed home a run.

Then in the third with Mel Rue on first with a walk Red lashed a liner to center. It was a clean base hit. But it took a high hop over Max Bunyard's head and rolled to the wall for a triple. Red came home a moment later as dependable Tom Neill stroked a single to center.

In the fifth Billy Smith singled and took second as Bunyard bobbled the ball. This time McQuillen hit a high bouncer between short and third into left field to score Billy.

Red got his fourth hit in the seventh but no scoring occurred. It raised his average to .328 and upped his rbi total to 65. He now has 119 hits.

Stewart in Form

Stewart blanked the Sox until the seventh when a couple of errors and Bunyard's long double scored a run. In the ninth Hal Rhyne's single and Doug Cossey's long homer over the right field wall brought in the last two runs.

Stewart walked only one man and fanned eight. His performance was a boon to the overworked Chiefs' pitching staff. He will be counted on for a starting spot from here on, especially with several doubleheaders coming up on the road.

Friday night Vance Carlson will take the mound against the Sox as Lincoln strives to make the .500 mark before departing on a long road trip Sunday. The Chiefs now have 48 wins and 50 losses.

Opposing Carlson will be Don Rudolph. Game time is 8.

Dobson Only Bidder On Paving Contract

Bids were again received on paving in district 1272 40th, Calvert to Prescott, and Prescott, 40th to the east line of lot 31, Union addition

Dobson Bros Construction Co, once awarded the contract, submitted the only bid, $33 249 75 This is less than the original bid of $37,684 45 However the district is smaller no longer including a 100 foot strip south of Prescott

Because of a clerical error, petitions asking for the improvement were previously declared legally sufficient whereas a later study revealed a 10 foot shortage The contractor surrendered the contract and petitions were again circulated

Defense Chiefs Told Stop Writing Articles

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Defense Department's "big team" of civilian officials and military chiefs were under strict orders today to stop writing articles for publication

A directive proclaims 'The basic philosophy is that members of the big team are so busy and so occupied with their heavy responsibilities that time for signed presentations is ill advised" The directive went to the Security Review Branch which passes on material made public by the Defense Department

The ax policy of keeping the 'big team' out of the writing market may be in line with Defense Secretary Charles L Wilson's view that there should be less 'rattling of the atomic bomb' or any other new weapon The action was taken at a meeting of top Pentagon civilians at which Wilson's views are reported to have weighed heavily.

The Defense Department's "big team' consists of 24 civilian secretaries and assistant secretaries, and the Joint Chiefs of Staff

Such federal officers have frequently chosen the signed article as a means of expressing their views on national defense problems

The matter of writing for publication came to a head when the Navy planned to have Assistant Secretary James H Smith by-line an article making original disclosures on two new vertical take-off fighter planes which require no runways to operate

The Defense Department is reported to have stopped that one on grounds that information was being given exclusively to a single publication under an official by line

The broader order followed, stating that any signed articles 'are inappropriate" The "moral consideration" of writing for pay was said to be secondary to the 'basic consideration" that officials are, or should be, too busy.

2 ARE THERE A LOT OF MISCONCEPTIONS ABOUT HEART DISEASE?
YES ☐ NO ☐
CHARTOON
1. ARE WOMEN BETTER DRIVERS THAN MEN? YOUR OPINION
3 WHAT WAS THE ORIGIN OF MYTHOLOGY? YOUR OPINION
7 23

1 The Auto Report Women have fewer accidents per 1 000 miles than men' doesn't prove anything You don't know whether they had better cars in better condition driving better weather driving less at night driving types of roads more or less stunning etc you don't know the age temperament or education and health of the women as compared with these factors in men In fact accident known thing

2 Apparently yes The National Safety Council for heart trouble Heart attacks are twice as common in men as in women

3 Psychologist Geza Roheim produces strong evidence in his volume The Gates of the Dream that myths such the gods of Olympus fairy tales etc were originally dreamed by someone who believed his dreams were real events and related them to others a true Roheim think much folk culture originated from people dreaming Women come more into their own in the dream world but the dreamers should do so palpitations are sure signs of heart trouble Find out if you really have heart trouble and what to do about it You can do a lot
